England the Land of my Home! Composed by FREDERICK WIDDOWS. J. A. Novello, 69, Dean-street, London. Sent free, by post (for Twenty-four postage stamps,) by F. Widdows, Professor of Music, 3, Crescent, Spalding, Lincolnshire; or by order of any book or music-seller.

"It is a regular patriotic song, but at the same time, we must add, one of the best and least affected we have seen on the theme of "Old England." The music is simple and homely—in keeping with the words—but it is expressive, nevertheless, and vocal in the bargain. The melody is rhythmical, and easily caught by the ear. The accompaniment in arpeggios is very easy, graceful, and well written. We can recommend this ballad, conscientiously, to our concert-singers."—Musical World.
